This important principle means that in the long run, the United States government does only what the people want it to do. Therefore, we can have a navy only if the people know and understand the importance of the navy and support it. Like the other services, the navy depends on this country's citizens for the four key tools of its trade: personnel, money, materials, and the authority to carry out its mission. As a navy journalist, your main function will be to make the facts about your navy available to the navy's three main publics: the people at your ship or station, navy people in general, and the people of the United States as a whole.
