speaking faithfully to a questioning world the rainbow filled joyous debut from a hugely exciting new talent perfect for 9 readers and fans of elle mcnicoll lisa thompson and onjali rauf s bestselling the boy at the back of the class my name s archie albright and i know two things for certain 1 my mum and dad kind of hate each other and they re not doing a great job of pretending that they don t anymore 2 they re both keeping a secret from me but i can t figure out what things aren t going great for archie albright his dad s acting weird his mum too and all he wants is for everything to go back to normal to three months before when his parents were happy and still lived together when archie sees a colourful crumpled flyer fall out of dad s pocket he thinks he may have found the answer only problem the answer might just lie at the end of the rainbow an adventure away together with his best friends bell and seb archie sets off on a heartwarming and unforgettable journey to try and fix his family even if he has to break a few rules to do it praise for me my dad and the end of the rainbow a life affirming must read the independent one of the most joyful books you ll read this year the bookseller the novel wears its heart on its sleeve and it is a very big heart financial times joyful funny and heartfelt katie tsang co author of sam wu is not afraid and dragon mountain this joyful book has such heart expertly navigating serious subjects around family gender and sexuality celebratory and advocating kindness i d recommend this book to all middle grade readers a real tear jerker steven butler author of the nothing to see here hotel so adorable funny and heartwarming i loved it alice oseman author of the heartstopper series a joyful and thoughtful celebration of family identity and inclusivity anna james author of the pages co series a brilliant smart book with a good heart it s like a warm hug and i can t wait for the next one danny wallace author of hamish and the worldstoppers and the day the screens went blank a powerful new voice in children s fiction aisha bushby author of a pocketful of stars i will recommend this book to everyone for years and years to come gavin hetherington booktuber how to train your gavin what if the primary mission of the church is not to help the family and the number one priority of the family is not to go to church what if they are both designed to work together to show a generation who god is it s not either or it s both and in think orange reggie joiner shows how two combined influences can make a greater impact than just two influences separately church leaders who think orange make radical changes so they can engage parents in an integrated strategysynchronize the home and church around a clear messageprovoke parents and kids to fight for their relationship with each otherrecruit mentors to become partners with familiesmobilize the next generation to be the churchwhen you think orange you rethink the way you do ministry for children and teenagers the first step on the road to change is to imagine possibility imagine a country offers visions of a new future from an astonishing array of scottish voices from comedians to economists writers to musicians edited curated and introduced by bestselling author val mcdermid and geographer jo sharp it is a collection of ideas dreams and ambitions aiming to inspire change hope and imagination featuring ali smith phill jupitus a l kennedy alan cumming kerry hudson greg hemphill carol ann duffy chris brookmyre alison watt alasdair gray leila aboulela ian rankin selina hales sanjeev kohli jackie kay damian barr elaine c smith abir mukherjee anne glover alan bissett louise welsh jo clifford ricky ross trishna singh cameron mcneish alexander mcall smith carla jenkins don paterson and many more when a parent hears that their child has a disability hearts and hopes are often broken but faith doesn t have to be in unbroken faith dianne dokko kim comes alongside you as a fellow special needs parent to help you reconcile the premise of a good god with the devastating realities of raising a disabled child kim courageously articulates deep seated unspoken doubts and fears you may have but are afraid to voice will my child still have a full life can i do this where is god in all this as you are adjusting to your new normal kim s biblical based encouragement will help you understand that you are not alone that god gets it and that god s word is entirely relevant to the raw and messy yet hallowed spaces of special needs parenting if you're starting a new children's ministry strengthening an existing one or wanting to be more intentional with the spiritual nurture you give your child or grandchild children on the trail can help even though it provides a clear progression for the spiritual formation of children it offers more paint by principle guidance than an oversimplified step by step approach in this manifesto for missional christians don everts brings together personal evangelism urban witness and global crosscultural mission to show how a life of total mission is possible in every situation to see what jesus is doing and to go and do likewise contents introduction klyne snodgrass finding happiness in family life biblical reflections stephen c barton response to barton luke a powery imposter happiness or the real thing marriage singleness and the beatitudes in the twenty first century jana marguerite bennett response to bennett jo ann deasy jesus paul and family values julie hanlon rubio response to rubio michelle clifton soderstrom tyranny authority service leadership and headship in the new testament lynn h cohick response to cohick dennis r edwards revenge forgiveness and sibling rivalry a theological dialogue between scripture and science dennis olson response to olson jack r lundbom wives and daughters women sex and violence in biblical tradition caryn a reeder response to reeder christopher b ansberry generativity covenant witness and jesus final discourse jim dekker response to dekker linda cannell the use of scripture in catholic social teaching s vision of the family mary veeneman response to veeneman erica olson bang family worship isaiah 58 1 12 luke a powery annotated bibliography on family the church across north america has struggled to minister effectively with children teens and adults with common mental health conditions and their families one reason for the lack of ministry is the absence of a widely accepted model for mental health outreach and inclusion in mental health and the church a ministry handbook for including children and adults with adhd anxiety mood disorders and other common mental health conditions dr stephen grcevich presents a simple and flexible model for mental health inclusion ministry for implementation by churches of all sizes denominations and organizational styles the model is based upon recognition of seven barriers to church attendance and assimilation resulting from mental illness stigma anxiety self control differences in social communication and sensory processing social isolation and past experiences of church seven broad inclusion strategies are presented for helping persons of all ages with common mental health conditions and their families to fully participate in all of the ministries offered by the local church the book is also designed to be a useful resource for parents grandparents and spouses interested in promoting the spiritual growth of loved ones with mental illness if you're a small group leader you believe in the power of community you know that every stage and phase of life needs a unique kind of influence but what exactly do you do what exactly is your job it's possible that you may feel lost at times like your role falls somewhere between a parent and a friend a coach and a teacher but remember you aren't supposed to be any of those things you are a little of all of those things small groups come in many sizes those who wear diapers those who watch disney those who are learning to drive those who are picking a college lead small five big ideas every small group leader needs to know clarifies the responsibilities of the small group leader who works with children and teenagers it establishes five common threads so that those who choose to lead in any size church can work off the same blueprint when you lead small you realize that what you do for a few has more potential than what you do for many when you lead small you choose to invest in the lives of a few to encourage authentic faith with personal insight and practical advice reggie joiner and tom shefchunas will show you how to do something small for a big impact you probably have a short list of people who impacted you during your childhood and teenage years when those individuals intersected with your world they became a new kind of leader for you they were not new in the sense that they had never led anything before or they were radically different from other leaders they were new because their influence gave you a new direction their belief in you gave you a new sense of worth they showed up at a new phase of your life and their faith helped you solidify your faith in a new and authentic way if someone showed up for you then the question is how will you show up for someone else a new kind of leader by reggie joiner explores seven beliefs and practical applications that will cause you to reimagine how you influence the next generation because when you hold the door open for a kid you hold the door open for the future a young lawyer s outwardly perfect life spirals out of control as she takes on her first murder case in this dark original and utterly compelling domestic noir for readers of paula hawkins a j finn or shari lapena lisa jewell new york times bestselling author of then she was gone alison has it all a doting husband adorable daughter and a career on the rise she s just been given her first murder case to defend but all is never as it seems just one more night then i ll end it alison drinks too much she s neglecting her family and she s having an affair with a colleague whose taste for pushing boundaries may be more than she can handle i did it i killed him i should be locked up alison s client doesn t deny that she stabbed her husband she wants to plead guilty and yet something about her story is deeply amiss saving this woman may be the first step to alison saving herself i m watching you i know what you re doing but someone knows alison s secrets someone who wants to make her pay for what she s done and who won t stop until she s lost everything there s no scoreboard in the sanctuary and the only plate is probably for the offering but every church leader needs to know how to win and every congregation needs to know when to cheer this insightful book speaks to every church leader who yearns for a simpler more effective approach to ministry an engaging parable about one overwhelmed pastor is followed by an overview of seven successful team practices each one developed and applied in a ministry setting reinforced by relevant discussion questions these clear easy and strategic practices can turn any ministry into a winning team your ministry is perfectly designed to produce the results you are currently experiencing if you are satisfied with those results you don t need this book if not it s time for a change like your own personal trainer 7 practices of effective ministry is an insightful guide for any leader who yearns for a simpler more effective approach to ministry here are seven strategic principles that when put into play will bring focus and clarity to everything you do and turn your ministry into a winning team story behind the book looking for ways to help pastors faced with hectic lives and depleted resources andy stanley reggie joiner and lane jones decided to write a parable about the complicated life of a local pastor rather than come straight at those in ministry with formulas and lists they engage readers in an effort to have them identify with the character for many years i practiced and taught church growth what i have witnessed as a member at north point takes church growth to a whole new level andy and his team communicate principles that will add value to you and the church you love john c maxwell founder the injoy group every professional athlete recognizes the value of solid coaching the best are always working to get better from what i ve seen at north point these seven practices can improve the game of any church in america john smoltz cy young award winning pitcher the practices covered in this book are down to earth practical and come from real difference makers who know what church leadership is all about andy reggie and lane have definitely hit the ball out of the park with the 7 practices of effective ministry ed young jr senior pastor fellowship church longlisted for the financial times and mckinsey business book of the year award 2019 a much needed antidote to pervasive pessimism financial times an ode to the ways in which engineering has improved human civilisation john hennessy chairman alphabet today s unprecedented pace of change leaves many people wondering what new technologies are doing to our lives has social media robbed us of our privacy and fed us with false information are robots going to take our jobs will better healthcare lead to an ageing population that cannot be cared for and has our demand for energy driven the earth's climate to the edge of catastrophe john browne argues that we need not and must not put the brakes on technological advance civilisation is founded on engineering innovation all progress stems from the human urge to make things and to shape the world around us resulting in greater freedom health and wealth for all drawing on history his own experiences and conversations with many of today's great innovators he uncovers the basis for all progress and its consequences both good and bad he argues compellingly that the same spark that triggers each innovation can be used to counter its negative consequences make think imagine provides an eloquent blueprint for how we can keep moving towards a brighter future parents have approximately 936 weeks from the time their child is born until he or she graduates from high school it goes by fast the responsibility to shape a child's faith and character can seem overwhelming if you are a parent you have probably realized by now that you can't make a toddler share can't force a child to have faith can't compel a teenager to make smart decisions but there is something parents can do they can make this week count and then do it again and again in don't miss it authors reggie joiner and kristen ivy help parents discover that what they understand about their kids now has the potential to change their kids future if parents don't miss what's happening during this phase of their kids lives then maybe kids won't miss some important things they need to know about life that's why what parents do this week matters it's just a phase and none of us wants to miss it a pilot's love letter to the world's greatest cities from the sunday times bestselling author of skyfaring a journey around both the author's mind and the planet's great cities that leaves us energised open to new experiences and ready to return more hopefully to our lives alain de botton growing up in his small hometown mark vanhoenacker spun the illuminated globe in his bedroom and dreamt of elsewhere of distant real cities and a perfect metropolis that existed only in his imagination now as a commercial airline pilot mark has spent more than two decades crossing the skies of our planet and touching down in the cities he'd always longed to see imagine a city celebrates the metropolises he has come to know and love through the lens of the hometown his heart has never left from the sweeping roads of los angeles and the old gates of jeddah to the intricate dream inspired plan of brasilia he shows us with warmth and fresh eyes the extraordinary places that billions of us call home vanhoenacker has a near bottomless appetite for fresh sights and guidebook curiosities intimate and thoughtful pico iyer air mail a love letter to the cities he's returned to again and again vanhoenacker captivates when describing the silent beauty of a world glimpsed from above washington post eloquent a love song to cities the world over wall street journal this reference work tells the unique history of christian education and shows how christian educators pioneered such institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling sunday schools women's education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten in the kingdom of fairyland below preparations are underway for the annual revels but aboveground the creatures of fairyland are in no mood for a party it has been a long time since young september bid farewell to fairyland and she is excited to see it again but upon her return she is shocked to find that her friends have been losing their shadows and therefore their magic to the kingdom of fairyland below it spells certain disaster and september won't stand for it determined to make amends she travels down into the underworld where among creatures of ice and moonlight she encounters a face she recognizes all too well halloween the hollow queen only then does september realize what she must do to save fairyland from slipping into the mundane world forever come and join in the revels with september and her friends but be warned in fairyland below even the best of friends aren't always what they seem praise for the girl who circumnavigated fairyland in a ship of her own making a glorious balancing act between modernism and the victorian fairy tale done
